SELECTION CRITERIA FOR MEG NUNN PLAYER Qld Inter-District Match Play Tournament

Representative teams will be selected by the GCQ/GCH Selection Committee.

The following district requirements and/or performance must also be met to be eligible for selection in a Golf Central Queensland Inc and Golf Central Highlands Inc District Meg Nunn Salver team:

SELECTION CRITERIA

1) General Information

- a) Applicants must be an Australian citizen or have proof of lodgement for Australian Citizenship.
- b) Nominations are open to players who have turned 18 year of age before the 1st day of play and hold a Handicap of 16.0 or less will be considered.
- c) A squad of six (6) players and a reserve, Non-Playing Captain and Team Manager will be selected
- d) Players must be willing to read, sign and abide by the District's Code of Conduct, Medical Detail Form and a Consent Indemnity Form.
- e) The players are required to be accommodated and travel as a team, unless alternative arrangements have been approved by the Event Organiser.
- f) It will be the player's responsibility to notify the Event Organiser of any injury or illness which may impact on their performance. In this instance the GCQ/GCH Committee reserves the right to appoint a replacement.
- g) The selection of the team for Meg Nunn will be the responsibility of the nominated selectors and their decision is final.

2. Financial Contribution

- a) GCQ/GCH Districts will bear the cost of accommodation, travel and course incidentals. All other costs will be the responsibility of the players
- b) A contribution fee of $200 will apply.
- c) GCQ/GCH Districts will supply players with two team shirts. Players must supply their own shorts, skorts, slacks etc & jumpers or vests.
- d) If a player/team official withdraws from the tournament once air travel has been finalised, the District will invoice that person for any costs incurred to cancel the booking (which may be the full cost of the airfare). The district will deduct the player's contribution fees before invoicing the player.

3. Team traits and previous performance, character, behaviour:

- a) Team person, good mixer, good district ambassador;
- b) Past Meg Nunn /Junior Jug experience an advantage (however not a necessity);
- c) Performance at selection trials;
- d) Physical endurance - Players must be capable of playing two rounds of 18 holes each day for four days.
- e) Rules knowledge

4. Club and district performances:

- a) Club match play results, if applicable;
- b) Club championships and/or handicap match play events;
- c) District open events, players are expected to enter district open events (not necessarily all events);
- d) Club verification of player's current performances and ability;
- e) Computer printouts of player's Golf Link scores, particularly courses played away from home course.
However not necessarily an indication of a good match player.

SELECTION TRIALS & EVENT PREPARATION

5. Player confirmation of availability for:

- a) Meg Nunn event: Squad members will then have two weeks to advise of their availability.
- b) Selection trials:
 - i. Should it be required, a selection day will be held for interested players on a date and course to be nominated by GCQ/GCH.
 - ii. Should it be required nominees may be requested to attend at least one trial match play day in either Central Highlands or Central Queensland district. If required, the Non-Playing Captain will be responsible for arranging practice sessions.
 - iii. In the event that a nominee is unable, for bona fide personal or professional reasons, to participate in one of these trials, she is welcome to put forward a statement of recent golfing successes that she believes is relevant to the requirements of a Meg Nunn Salver team member.
